Mayor Ames to kick-off Catholic Schools Week

Beaumont Mayor Becky Ames will join hundreds of Catholic school students at 9:30 a.m. Feb. 3 at St. Anthony Cathedral Basilica, Beaumont, to officially declare the week Catholic Schools Week.

Mayor Ames will make the proclamation before the annual Rainbow Mass celebrated by Bishop Curtis Guillory, SVD.

“Catholic Schools Week celebrates the enduring value of Catholic education. We focus on the gift that Catholic education provides to America’s young people and its contributions to our Church, our communities and our nation,” superintendent of Catholic schools for the Diocese of Beaumont, Nancy Collins, said.

“We build community awareness of all Catholic Schools throughout the country during this week, and we honor those who have contributed to the success of Catholic school students: families, faculty, staff, priests, volunteers, community supporters, local, state and national leaders,” Collins added.

This year’s theme is Catholic Schools-Dividends for Life: Faith, Morals, Knowledge, Discipline.
